

A parabolic cross-section focuses reflected sound toward the focal region. The same geometry appears in dishes, telescopes, and resonant musical cavities.